

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Birding

VOL. 42 • NO. 4 • JULY 2010

Cover Photos: These birds are as diverse in their vocalizations as they are in plumage and morphology. Check out our CoverWebExtra <aba.org/birding/v42n4p5w1.pdf> and learn more about the sounds they make.

Cooper's Hawk by © Jim Zipp. Long-billed Curlew by © Alan Murphy. Carolina Wren by © Alan Murphy. Eastern Wood-Pewee by © Robert Royse. Lazuli Bunting by © Joe Fuhrman.

Correspondence

10 Your Letters

- Collecting Vagrants
- Radical Agenda
- Ipswich Sparrow
- “Good” Reviews
- “Bad” Reviews
- CPR for Birders
- A Plea for Hawaii

20 A Birding Interview

with GEORGE FENWICK

24 Sightings

Mid-May to Early June 2010

MICHAEL L. P. RETTER

28 News and Notes

- Molt Migrants' Behavior
- Hybrid Zone Diversity
- American Kestrel Trends
- Golden-fronted Woodpecker

PAUL HESS

Feature Articles

32 On the Road Again— For a Bird Survey that Counts

DAVE ZIOLKOWSKI, JR.,

KEITH PARDIECK, and

JOHN R. SAUER

42 Eyes on the Skies: Vision and Birding

CHARLES T. SCIALFA

50 Birding by Ear, Visually. Part 1: Birding Acoustics

ARCH MCCALLUM

Departments

64 Answers to the May Photo Quiz

Reality Birding

JEFFREY A. GORDON

WebExtra: Analysis

by BILL PRANTY

68 Traditions

Banding a Rarity: Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts

PAUL J. BAICICH

70 Book Reviews

Birds of Northeast Asia

- NICK LETHABY, reviewer

Ornithological Ethnography

- RICK WRIGHT, reviewer

80 New Photo Quiz

Loggerhead Shrike.

See article, p. 32.

Photo by © Jim Zipp.

